Savor the season of gratitude at Huntsville Botanical Garden's Grateful Sips Tea

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (Nov. 3, 2026) — Celebrate the beauty of autumn and the joy of togetherness at Grateful Sips, a thoughtfully curated afternoon tea at Huntsville Botanical Garden on Sunday, Nov. 15, 2026, from 1:30–3 p.m. in the Carriage House.

Guests are invited to gather, sip, and savor the season with an elegant afternoon of artisan teas, delicious treats, and creative experiences inspired by the warm colors and natural beauty of late fall. Designed for friends, family, and tea enthusiasts alike, Grateful Sips offers a welcoming opportunity to slow down, reconnect, and celebrate the simple pleasures of the season.

A curated menu will feature artisan teas from Piper & Leaf paired with seasonal bites from Fern & Feast Bistro, along with delicate petit fours and cookies from Peggy Ann Bakery. Guests can capture memories at a beautiful autumn-inspired floral photo vignette and create their own miniature dried floral bouquets to take home as keepsakes.

"Autumn is a wonderful time to reflect on the people and experiences that bring joy to our lives," said Julia Harper, Visitor Programs Coordinator at HBG. "Grateful Sips is an invitation to slow down, enjoy meaningful connections, and celebrate the beauty of the season in a setting inspired by nature, before the rush of the holiday season."
